Make life easier with local support

Quickly access services so you can focus on what matters most

Your program links you to a trusted community resource locator, making it easy to find care for older adults and caregivers—all in one place. Save time, reduce stress, and get the resources you need when you need them.

Getting started is simple.

Log in at mysupportlinc.com, click the hamburger menu, select "Access Additional Resources," and open the Community Resource Locator. From there, you can:

Stay informed and connected.
Engage in local programs and events that assist caregivers and build community.

Find care and guidance.
Explore housing, transportation, and other services that help you manage daily responsibilities.

Feel supported and confident.
Discover health services and community resources that make life's challenges more manageable.
